

While it is not our policy to list our preferences, as an individual student has their own needs and requirements from a school, we have put a list of those high schools to which our 8th graders have been accepted. Again, please understand that there are no high schools that we are recommending, but simply a list that may give you a starting point when you begin your own research.

The list is as follows:

Philip Randolph High School	Essex Street Academy	Manhattan Village Academy
Academy for Careers in Television and Film (Queens)	Facing History	Manhattan/Hunter College for the Sciences
Art and Design High School	Frank McCourt	Millennium
Bard High School I and II	Frank Sinatra School of the Arts	Museum School
Beacon	Frederick Douglas Academy	NEST +M
Bronx High School of Science (SHS)	Global Learning Collaborative	NYC iSchool
Brooklyn Latin (SHS)	Harvest Collegiate	NYC Lab High School
Brooklyn Technical HS (SHS)	High School for Health Professions	Park East
Central Park East HS	High School of Economics and Finance	Professional Performing Arts HS
City College Academy of the Arts	High School of Fashion Industries	School of the Future
Chelsea Career and Technical Education HS	High School for Math, Science and Engineering (SHS)	Stuyvesant
Clinton School for Writers and Artists	Humanities Prep	Special Music School
Eleanor Roosevelt	LaGuardia (SHS)	Talent Unlimited

Environmental Studies	Lehman-American Studies (SHS)	Urban Assembly for Design and Construction
	Manhattan Bridges (Dual Language)	Urban Assembly for Green Careers
	Manhattan Center for Science and Math	Urban Assembly for Media Studies
	Manhattan Early College for Advertising	Urban Assembly Maker Academy
	Orchard Collegiate	Urban Assembly, NY Harbor School
	Quest to Learn	Urban Assembly for the Performing Arts
		West End Secondary School (Wess)

Be aware that while there is no longer a district priority, District 2 schools are still very difficult to get into as now the pool is even bigger. Therefore, it is even more important to make sure the High School list is diversified. We hope this gives you some idea as to where to begin your search. There are many new schools that are 2 and 3 years old and just need to be given a chance. There are a lot of good programs being created every year and some very dedicated and hard-working teachers and staff. There are a lot of good programs being created every year and some very dedicated and hard-working teachers and staff behind these programs. Please be sure to visit school websites in order to get more information about a specific school. It is imperative that you do your own research on each and every school that you list on your application. Good luck!

